

Lingya Waterfall Trek

⌚ 24 hours

Overview

The Lingya Ghat Waterfall Trek is located just 13.5 km ahead of Lavasa City, nestled in the heart of the Sahyadris. This beautiful monsoon trek is named after the Lingya Pinnacle, which is visible during the hike and holds great religious significance for the locals. The trek begins from Dhamanohol Village, Maharashtra, located near the western edge of the Varasgaon Dam.

This trek is renowned for its breathtaking views, especially during the monsoon season. The journey begins at the village, where the Ghatmatha Watchtower marks the starting point. However, it can be easy to lose your way, so it's advisable to hire a guide from Dhamanohol.

As you trek further, the trail leads you to the Lingya Ghat Waterfall, cascading down to the right of the watchtower. The sight of the Shivlinga-like rock formation, surrounded by towering mountains and twin waterfalls, is nothing short of mesmerizing. Continuing along the trail, you'll reach a plateau leading to Kurdugad, adding to the beauty of this awe-inspiring journey.

Lingya Ghat is one of the best treks in the Sahyadri range, offering an unforgettable experience for nature lovers and adventure enthusiasts, particularly during the monsoon.
